Monty represented the Board at the Premier's West Shore Announcement on August 3. A new collaborative campus between Royal Roads, UVic, Camosun College, and the Justice Institute of BC will be built in Langford. It is expected to open in fall of 2024. Monty met with Lane Trotter and Brenda McBain to plan the September 8 Orientation for the Board. On August 24, Monty went to the Camosun Employee BBQ and Corn Roast at the Interurban Campus.

Lane Trotter and Monty met with the three new Board members for an orientation. On September 13, Monty attended a BC post-secondary Board Chairs Meeting. On September 22 Monty went to the Indigenous Student Welcome Feast, and on September 29 to the Orange Shirt Day ceremony to remember the residential schools. On September 30, Monty attended the Camosun Chargers golf fundraiser in partnership with Alumni and Advancement.

The Ministry is planning a Governance Workshop November 10. Lindsay Kearns and Greg Atkins will attend. The theme for the workshop will be reconciliation and decolonization of governance. Monty is a member of the Steering Committee for the workshop.
